Subject: The Fallows Family Line

Joseph and Mary Fallows are also my GGrandparents. I was not privileged to know Joseph, but as a child, did know my GGrandma Fallows. I'm also looking into the ancestry of Joseph and Mary. I've not found anything on the Cheetham's (Chetham's) except for her father and mother. I have discovered and developed an interesting theory about the father of Joseph. My grandmother has written a claim that she was related to Samuel Fallows (Uncle) who dedicated U.S. Grants Tomb.

In our research we discovered that Samuel and his brother Thomas (our GGrandfather) may have immigrated to Wisconsin prior to the Civil War, and after the war, Samuel remained in the Army of the U.S. as a Chaplain, and Thomas returned to Middleton England. Thomas had family during this time and what we've found about them is that they were in Middleton for the 1881 British Census. We do not know if they accompanied him to Wisconsin and returned with him, or remained in England while he searched for a new home. We believe that he had two children born in 1860 (the year he and Samuel were first reported in the U.S. Census to be in Wisconsin) and that his next child was born in 1867. Joseph was born in 1855. Thomas' wife we believe to be Sarah Hilton of County Mayo, Ireland. During that Census, Joseph Fallows was reported hospitalized in the Manchester Royal Infirmary, and Mary Alice Chetham, born in Hulme England, was living in Salford England with her mother we believe to be Elizabeth (Sarah)

Joseph Fallows was reported hospitalized in the Manchester Royal Infirmary, and Mary Alice Chetham, born in Hulme England, was living in Salford England with her mother we believe to be Elizabeth (Sarah) Johnson Chetham of Scotland, and five siblings. I do not know when she moved west, but she did live with our Great Aunt Cora (her daughter, Corine Fallows Stelle) in Pacific Palisades, California. My Grandmother (her other daughter, Elizabeth Ellen Fallows Nikodem) lived not far from them, off of Sunset Blvd.

At the time I remember her, I lived with my parents, sister and brother in a suburb of Los Angeles called South Gate, not two miles from the nursing home where she eventually passed away. I was about 9 then, and do remember my Father Leslie Sr., her grandson, spending a lot of time with her before she died. I do not know where she is buried, but I presume that she was returned east to be with Joseph. A mystery yet to be solved. I have never seen a picture of Joseph, but have several pictures of Mary. I would greatly appreciate a copy of their picture, and any other information you may have about them and the rest of our Fallows family.

I'm also looking into the ancestry of Joseph and Mary. I've not found anything on the Cheetham's (Chetham's) except for her father and mother.

Joseph FALLOWS and Mary Alice CHEETHAM. They were married on 01 Jan 1878 in Holy Trinity, Parkfield Parish, Middleton England. They had 4 children.

From Thomas Fallows, Jr. [whybuya@msn.com] Thu 12/12/2002 11:16 AM

When I was a child Walter and Annie lived with my parents (Thomas and Eleanor) and I was in daily contact with them. My grandfather Walter had a crippled hip as a result of being run over by a horse and carriage when he was a child in Manchester, England! He suffered a great deal of pain during his life and of course this affected his personality in a negative way. He is supposed to hold several patents and I'm trying to track them down. One is a mechanism for a target rifle such as used in carnivals and arcades.
