Subject: The Fallows Family Line

Joseph and Mary Fallows are also my GGrandparents. I was not privileged to know Joseph, but as a child, did know my GGrandma Fallows. I'm also looking into the ancestry of Joseph and Mary. I've not found anything on the Cheetham's (Chetham's) except for her father and mother. I have discovered and developed an interesting theory about the father of Joseph. My grandmother has written a claim that she was related to Samuel Fallows (Uncle) who dedicated U.S. Grants Tomb.

In our research we discovered that Samuel and his brother Thomas (our GGrandfather) may have immigrated to Wisconsin prior to the Civil War, and after the war, Samuel remained in the Army of the U.S. as a Chaplain, and Thomas returned to Middleton England. Thomas had family during this time and what we've found about them is that they were in Middleton for the 1881 British Census. We do not know if they accompanied him to Wisconsin and returned with him, or remained in England while he searched for a new home. We believe that he had two children born in 1860 (the year he and Samuel were first reported in the U.S. Census to be in Wisconsin) and that his next child was born in 1867. Joseph was born in 1855. Thomas' wife we believe to be Sarah Hilton of County Mayo, Ireland. During that Census, Joseph Fallows was reported hospitalized in the Manchester Royal Infirmary, and Mary Alice Chetham, born in Hulme England, was living in Salford England with her mother we believe to be Elizabeth (Sarah) Johnson Chetham of Scotland, and five siblings.

Mary Alice CHEETHAM is the daughter of John CHEETHAM and Elizabeth JOHNSON. She was born on 30 Sep 1855 in Oldham, Middleton, Lancashire, England. She died on 28 May 1947 in Lynwood, Los Angeles, California, Cremated. Burial on 28 May 1947 in Flower Hill Cemetary - page 3-137, (Walter Fallows officiated burial of ashes, marker?) 5433 Kennedy Blvd., North Bergen, NJ (Grave #58, Row 45,Block M).

I do not know when she moved west, but she did live with our Great Aunt Cora (her daughter, Corine Fallows Stelle) in Pacific Palisades, California. My Grandmother (her other daughter, Elizabeth Ellen Fallows Nikodem) lived not far from them, off of Sunset Blvd.

At the time I remember her, I lived with my parents, sister and brother in a suburb of Los Angeles called South Gate, not two miles from the nursing home where she eventually passed away. I was about 9 then, and do remember my Father Leslie Sr., her grandson, spending a lot of time with her before she died. I do not know where she is buried, but I presume that she was returned east to be with Joseph. A mystery yet to be solved. I have never seen a picture of Joseph, but have several pictures of Mary. I would greatly appreciate a copy of their picture, and any other information you may have about them and the rest of our Fallows family.

I'm also looking into the ancestry of Joseph and Mary. I've not found anything on the Cheetham's (Chetham's) except for her father and mother.

My aunt Ruth lived in Culver City, CA and when she died in 1981, my father lived with her and packed up some photos in the trunk of his mustang and drove to Florida. My father was an alcoholic as was aunt Ruth and uncle Walter. My father wound up in a nursing home in Florida in 1985 and was going to be made a ward of the state. My sister and I flew down to Florida and took back one grocery bag of photos that were still in the trunk and these were amongst them. My father was also brought back to New York and lived in Westbury until he died in July of 1986. My aunt Ruth's cremated remains were buried with him at Pinelawn Cemetary but the marker does not indicate that. Her wish was to have her remains sprinkled over the Pacific Ocean (according to my father) but instead they were 5 years in the trunk of the mustang. When my sister and I discovered them upon our visit to Florida in 1985, we brought them back to New York and not knowing what else to do with them, had them placed in the casket with my father when he died. You probably already know that she had no children. She was married to Joe Boyle who was a producer. She was an actress on Broadway and in film. She was in a movie called Emergency. My aunt saw it on TV one night and Ruth Fallows was listed in the credits. She was also a Rockette and a Vargas girl. A picture of her portrait was published in Playboy magazine in January 1964. The portrait was painted in 1925. I sure wish I knew what happened to that!

Les, I got your e-mail and all I can say is, WOW! I never even knew that your family existed! I was born in 1958 and my dad left the house in 1962. I barely had a relationship with him.

I knew that grandpa Fallows had 2 sisters but never considered that they may have had children so you can imagine my surprise when my brother told me about all this. I have been very excited about it. I live on Long Island and plan to go to the cemetery in North Bergen, NJ. I have portrait pictures of Mary and Joseph that were taken in NY when they were in their 20's or 30's by a photographer. I never knew their names or anything about them and I am very grateful to learn all that I can.

You have inspired me to make a family album for my nephew and his wife for their 10th wedding anniversary in 2004. My mother pulled out the box of family photos and we uncovered some pictures of Aunt Cora and Aunt Nellie with my grandfather Walter. I will definitely have copies made of the pictures of Joseph and Mary for you. I have had these pictures for 17 years and never knew what to do with them.
